Keynote and Breakout Presenters

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Katie White

Leading Healthy Assessment Systems

Author and Educational Consultant

Katie White is an author and presenter with more than 30 years of experience in education. She has been a system leader, an administrator, a learning coach, and a K–12 classroom and online teacher.

Katie was an integral part of her school division's multiyear journey through renewed curricula and standards/outcome-based assessment and reporting. Through her work at the system level, she has developed an integrated understanding of the relationships between learning, curriculum, assessment, instruction, environment, data, response to intervention, resource deployment, and system strategic planning. Her work with educators supports both a holistic understanding of learners and how they interact with our school systems alongside an in-depth refinement of practices that support teaching and learning in classrooms. Her focus is on helping educators develop a personalized understanding of the connections between curriculum, assessment, and instruction through growth in leadership, confidence, and understanding.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Alec Couros

What Educational Leaders Need to Know About Generative AI in Education?

Professor of Educational Technology and Media – University of Regina

Dr. Alec Couros is a Professor of Educational Technology and Media at the University of Regina. He previously directed both the Centre for Educational Research, Collaboration and Development (CERCD) and the Centre for Teaching and Learning, advancing research collaborations and innovative teaching practices.

An award-winning educator, Dr. Couros is internationally recognized for his expertise in generative AI, digital citizenship, critical media literacy, and open learning, actively shaping educational policy and practice across K-12 and higher education.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Joe Sanfelippo

Lead From Where You Are

Educational Leader and Author

Dr. Joe Sanfelippo, retired Superintendent of the Fall Creek School District in Wisconsin, is an educational leader and author. During his tenure, the Fall Creek School District was recognized as an Innovative District twice by the International Center for Leadership in Education.

Joe authored multiple books, including best-sellers “Hacking Leadership” and “Lead From Where You Are.”

Honored as one of 117 Future Ready Superintendents and among the 50 Personalized Learning Leaders by the US Department of Education, Joe was also named one of the 100 Most Influential Educators by District Administration Magazine. In 2019, Education Dive awarded him National Superintendent of the Year.
