Extended Wilderness City Stay

Beautiful, energetic and entertaining, this small city has all the makings of a big one. Exciting outdoor adventure, deep roots and a riveting gold rush history make the territory's capital a must-see. Whitehorse is a captivating mix of coffee shops, museums and quirky heritage buildings, blended with a capital city going about its business. Enjoy a few days exploring this unique and historic city, checking out local museums, visiting the wildlife, and learning about all the reasons that keep people from leaving.

Modern Explorers

Located just 30 minutes from the Whitehorse International Airport, the Ranch is a modern adventure and a gateway to a memorable and true Yukon experience. In addition to stylish and comforting accommodations, delicious food, and warm company, the property has what you need to make a memorable trip. With hiking and mountain biking available, a bonfire area, and outdoor hot tub, it's hard to say no to a few days at the base of the Seven Sisters mountain range.

Cabin Retreat

Luxury private cabins take camping to a whole new level. With your own private BBQ, full kitchenette and bathroom it'll be hard to leave these little homes with exceptional mountain views. Relax in the sauna and outdoor hot tub, explore the nearby trails, gather around the campfire for smores, or take a trip to the Yukon Wildlife Preserve to meet some of the fuzzy locals.

Lakeside Inn

This romantic location is perfect for couples to get away into nature. The majestic lodge on the side of Marsh lake has an accomplished chef who creates daily breakfasts, lunches and delicious 3-course dinners full of Northern flavours for the guests. The location is ideal for exploring the natural areas around the lake and just breathing in the fresh Yukon air. The swans will be nearby at this time of the year so keep an eye out overhead!
